PRESIDENT JAMES HENRY RUSSELL OF TEXARKANA COLLEGE says, "As the Project Manager for SHW Group, Mark was involved with the project from conception through construction administration on the Sullivan Performing Arts Center and John Thomas Theatre for Texarkana ISD. His direction of the team and continual oversight throughout construction was crucial to the success of the project. I really appreciated that he would communicate openly and honestly about any issues so we could arrive at a quick solution and keep the project on track.

PRINCIPAL IN CHARGE JAMES STROHMEYER, JR. OF SHW GROUP says, "Mark and I worked closely together on several projects including seven new elementary schools, one the largest high schools in the state of Texas, and a notable performing arts center. His depth of knowledge on managing major projects is considerable. These profitable projects for the office were completed on time and under budget. A great deal of this can be attributed to Mark's management style, collaboration with the team, and overall direction of the project.

PRESIDENT DAVID SHANKS OF SHANKS ARCHITECTS says, "For over twelve years now, I have known Mark and am glad to call him a friend. I worked with him on several worship centers during my time as President of HH Architects. He is a man of integrity and possesses the uncommon trait of humility. In my long career, I have worked with numerous architects. None have been more diligent and perseverant than Mark about completing the job at hand. He has excellent leadership and project management skills. Should the opportunity arise in the future, I would gladly welcome the chance to work with him again.

PRESIDENT BILLY ROY AND JASON ROY OF ALTECH, INC. say, "We have known Mark Hill over four years and consider him to be a man of integrity, honesty, and someone I proudly call a friend. We have worked with Mark on a performing arts center and an armed forces reserve center. Mark is very knowledgeable and possesses excellent project management skills. In the future, should we have the opportunity to work with Mark again we certainly welcome it."

VICE - PRESIDENT

ASSOCIATE PRINCIPAL WAYNE REYNAUD OF PBK ARCHITECTS says, "Mark Hill and I worked on projects together during his time at PBK, Inc and I found him to be honest, diligent, and trustworthy. He was in charge of our production and staffing at the time and was knowledgeable, friendly and easy to work worth. He also had the assignment of managing several projects while at PBK and was committed at every level to the project's success. I know that Mark will offer any company his expertise and work ethic while meeting project deadlines and goals."

V.P. AND DIRECTOR OF OPERATIONS AARON SCATES OF BALFOUR BEATTY says, "Over the past five years, Mark and I have collaborated on over $185,000,000 worth of construction. He always communicated with me openly and honestly about contentious issues regarding the project. Together we were able to come up with a resolution that was in the best interest of our mutual client and allow the project to progress on schedule. Mark demonstrated the rare ability to "listen" and fully understand issues before jumping the gun on a solution. Several times his analytical approach guided the team through rough waters. All of these projects ultimately were completed on time and within budget."
